

Need clean desks?

Why not incentivise.

Incentivising students with prizes and rewards is a sure-fire way to achieve early adoption of an idea (especially one like cleaning!).

Make it relatable

Queue-jumping

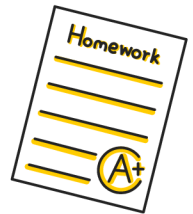

House points

Class pizza days

Non-uniform day

Homework extensions

Earn points

Sit next to your friend

Sweet treats

Whatever you choose, if you can create a buzz and get your students talking about the prizes, the message might catch on!
